The "Whitetails South of the Border" sweepstakes drawing was held on February 6th, 2003. By renewing or becoming new Associates, names were entered to win a trophy whitetail dream hunt to Sonora, Mexico, and the right gear for Coues' country, along with four additional prizes.

The grand prize was won by Boone and Crockett Associate, James D. Jurad of Loveland, Nevada. Jurad was convinced he was the recipient of a crank call and not the grand prize winner when he was notified. "I can't believe this. After all of the entries and raffle tickets I have purchased over the years, this is the first time I've ever won anything," commented Jurad. He will be going on a five-day trophy Coues' whitetail hunt in Sonora, Mexico, hosted by Kirk Kelso and Pusch Ridge Outfitters. He will be joined on the adventure by hunting author and Boone and Crockett Club Professional Member, Craig Boddington. Jurad also won the perfect rifle and scope combination for Coues' country — a Remington 700 BDL

Custom Deluxe 7mm Ultra-Mag topped with a Leupold Vari-X III 4.5-14x40mm scope.

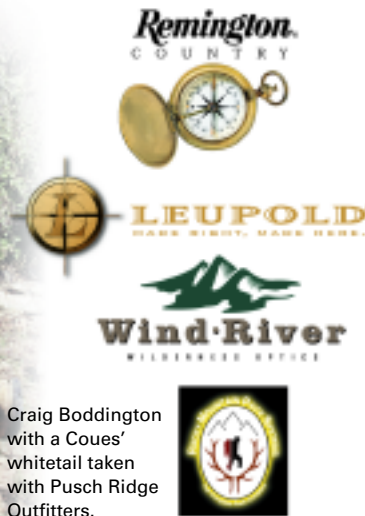

Other names drawn were B&C Associates:

- Andrew J. Klejka from Mt. Pleasant, PA who won a Leupold Wind River 15-4.5x60 spotting scope with a compact tripod;
- Don Honeycutt from Georgetown, TX who won the Leupold Wind River 10x42 binoculars;
- Jerry Stefanitsis from Bronx, NY who won a Rocky Mountain Pack Systems Yukon backpack;
- Robert A. Yniguez from Page, AZ who won a Rocky Mountain Pack Systems Coyote fanny pack.

The Boone and Crockett Club would like to thank all of our Associates and especially our sponsors: Pusch Ridge Outfitters, Remington, Leupold & Stevens and Rocky Mountain Pack Systems. ■
