GRIP AND GRIN

As the old saying goes. Nothing wrong with hoisting up an impressive rack and certainly nothing wrong with a big smile. If you think of it next time, snap a few images like this one, with your trophy's chin on the ground. Not sure if this is something that originated with super sized and super small-sized African game like Eland and Duiker, but you see this a lot on safari and they make for a tasteful and respectful field photo.
