

HEROES OF CONSERVATION LUNCHEON

Conservation is an important part of hunting and our community, so are our B&C Lifetime Associates. Challenges around conservation and hunting have always been present and taking the extra step to make sure hunting will continue to be a part of our lives is a significant task.

At the Heroes of Conservation Luncheon honoring B&C Lifetime Associates Rob Keck, B&C Professional Member and Director of Conservation for Bass Pro Shops, discussed the importance of our state and federal agencies along with the support and funding from organizations like the Boone and Crockett Club and their Lifetime Associates working together to face the challenges going forward as heroes of conservation. ■

ABOVE: B&C Regular Member and Associates Committee Chairman, Jayson Arnold, welcomed everyone to the luncheon and discussed the importance of our Lifetime Associates. RIGHT: Rob Keck was the keynote speaker.

WINNER!
