

FROM THE EDITOR

Dallas Safari Club - Youth 2000 - Ensuring the Legacy

On behalf of Boone and Crockett Club President, Dan Pedrotti and Dallas Safari Club Executive Director, Gray Thornton, I want to extend a special invitation to all of our Associates to join the Boone and Crockett Club and the International Professional Hunters Association (IPHA) at the Dallas Safari Club millennium convention "Youth 2000 - Ensuring the Legacy" January 20-23, 2000, at Dallas' Market Hall and Fairmont Hotel.

Gray Thorton, Dallas Safari Club Executive Director stated, " Our 2000 convention is a celebration of the hunting and conservation heritage and Dallas Safari Club's commitment to ensuring that our youth can enjoy the richness of the outdoors for the next century and beyond. We welcome one of North America's premier conservation organizations, the Boone and Crockett Club, founded by American President, hunter and conservationists, Theodore Roosevelt, as well as the premier professional hunters associates, the International Professional Hunters Association, whose members are the global stewards of wildlife, to join in this celebration."

The week long celebration begins with the International Professional Hunters Association's 2nd Annual, "First Shot Booking Event" held at the DFW Airport Harvey Hotel, January 17-19. This unique and successful concept provides hunters an intimate venue to meet with IPHA professionals in individual suites on an appointment only basis to discuss hunting opportunities, areas and to book dates.

The Dallas Safari Club "Youth 2000 - Ensuring the Legacy" Convention gets underway Thursday evening after exhibitor setup with a welcoming party and auction for exhibitors, members and guests at the Fairmont Hotel. Dallas Safari Club

Sunday during the DSC Expo at Market Hall.

Dallas Safari Club will host and invites all delegates to attend their Friday and Saturday evening banquets featuring celebrity guests, entertainment and exceptional auctions.

The Dallas Safari Club three day Expo will host more than 300 of the finest exhibitors offering hunts, fishing adventures, art, jewelry, sporting equipment and accessories from around the world. Market Hall will be a sportsman's and sportswoman's paradise featuring exhibits, free seminars and sensational wildlife displays including the best of the Jack O'Connor collection and the unveiling of the magnificent life-size World's Records Stone's sheep, the Chadwick Ram, considered to be the most magnificent trophy ever taken by a hunter. The O'Connor collection and Chadwick Ram will be on display courtesy of the Boone and Crockett Club.

Dallas Safari Club president, Roger Hooper, announced,

WATCH YOUR MAIL FOR DETAILS!

You will be receiving a special invitation directly from Dallas Safari Club to this exciting event. This mailing will include everything you need to know...events schedule, pricing and hotel information.

You will also receive a special mailing from the Boone and Crockett Club that includes detailed information about the Club's events —seminar topics, auction items and the special B&C lunch.

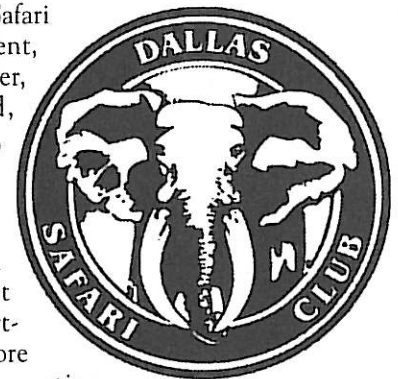

will welcome as special guests the members and associates of Boone and Crockett Club. The Thursday evening auction will include Dallas Safari Club and Boone and Crockett Club featured offerings with proceeds dedicated to each organization's conservation and education programs.

Boone and Crockett Club will host a luncheon Saturday afternoon for members, associates and guests at the Fairmont Hotel and with Dallas Safari Club, will offer free seminars Saturday and

"Dallas Safari Club, Boone and Crockett Club and International Professional Hunters Association will join ranks in Dallas next January in a spirit of partnership to celebrate more than 100 years of conservation and to ensure the sporting legacy for today's youth and future generations. We invite hunters and conservationists from throughout North America and the world to join us in this celebration." ▲▲▲

George A. Bettas
Vice President of Communications
Boone and Crockett Club

YOUTH 2000
ENSURING THE LEGACY
JANUARY 20-23, 2000