YOUTH 2000 ENSURING A LEGACY

JANUARY 20-23 ▲ DALLAS, TEXAS

Register Today!

The Dallas Safari Club "Youth 2000 — Ensuring the Legacy" Convention gets underway Thursday evening with a welcoming party and auction for exhibitors, members and guests at the Fairmont Hotel. Dallas Safari Club will welcome as special guests the members and associates of Boone and Crockett Club. The Thursday evening auction will include Dallas Safari Club and Boone and Crockett Club featured offerings with proceeds dedicated to each organization's conservation and education programs.

Boone and Crockett Club will host a luncheon Saturday afternoon for members, associates and guests at the Fairmont Hotel and with Dallas Safari Club, will offer free seminars Saturday and Sunday during the DSC Expo at Market Hall.

Dallas Safari Club will host and invites all delegates to attend their Friday and Saturday evening banquets featuring celebrity guests, entertainment and exceptional auctions.

The Dallas Safari Club three day Expo will host more than 300 of the finest exhibitors offering hunts, fishing adventures, art, jewelry, sporting equipment and accessories from around the world. Market Hall will be a sportsman's and sportswoman's paradise featuring exhibits, free seminars and sensational wildlife displays including the best of the Jack O'Connor collection and the unveiling of the magnificent life-size World's Records Stone's sheep, the Chadwick Ram, considered to be the most magnificent trophy ever taken by a hunter. The O'Connor collection and Chadwick Ram will be on display courtesy of the Boone and Crockett Club.

Dallas Safari Club is an international non-profit education, conservation and hunter advocacy organization based in Dallas, Texas. With an international membership, the club raises and expends funds annually to educate the public and to serve the interests of wildlife, habitat and sportsmen and sportswomen worldwide.

For more information on Dallas Safari Club and the 2000 convention contact Gray Thorton at (972) 980-9800.
