NON-TYPICAL WHITETAIL DEER

FIELD PHOTOGRAPHY TIP NO. 7

The straight on, looking at the birdy, pose is certainly a mandatory shot to take. One we can do without even thinking. But while you're at it, try looking admiringly at your trophy for a few takes. You might be surprised which photo will stand out as not only being different than all the rest, but it might just be the one showing you and your trophy's "best side."

Larry J. Landes is seen admiring his trophy typical whitetail deer. He took this buck in 2010 while hunting in Lyon County, Kansas. It scores 175-4/8 points.
