I like to dedicate this pronghorn in memory of my brother Franklin W. Noble who passed away unexpectedly last year. Frank and I grew up hunting together ever since we were kids and went on our first pronghorn hunt in 2001 outside of Valentine, Texas, where we both became hooked from then on. Frank was an avid pronghorn hunter and had hunted on the CS Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico, and the Double U Ranch in west Texas for years trying to put one in the All-time records book. He came very close, but never quite made it. I decided to hunt the CS Ranch this year for my first time to commemorate my brother, and to try to "put one in the books" for him. With the help of ranch owner Randy Davis and my guide Kevin Griffin, I think I did. This one's for you Frank!

Your little brother,
Patrick W. Noble
