TROPHY TALK

JUSTIN SPRING

Director of Big Game Records

Hunting season is upon us and the busy scoring season is just around the corner. In these uncertain times, we have no clue what the next few months will hold and how eager hunters will be to have their trophies measured. At the time of this writing, Montana is experiencing the most daily cases of Covid-19 that we have seen. The Governor has encouraged people to work remotely if possible. With all these factors in mind, we do not want our Official Measurers putting themselves in any situation that makes them uncomfortable, nor do we want to see a decrease in our entry rate. We are hoping to see more entries based on an increase in recreational activities across Montana and other states.

We suggest that when folks contact you to schedule a scoring, you set a time they can drop off their trophy to measure. If someone is adamant that they be present during the scoring, that is up to the Official Measurer (OM) and their comfort level with the situation. The Official Measurer Code of Conduct states that you will make yourself available to score trophies that qualify. It does not require you to put yourself in a situation you don't feel comfortable with. I truthfully hope when you all read this, we are on a path back to a more "normal" feel to life.

OM RENEWAL

The two-year period for OM renewal is upon us. As many of you are aware, we have transitioned to our new database. Part of this new system allows the Official Measurers to log in and renew online. Once you have renewed, the system will automatically set your next renewal date two years out. This is to ensure the contact list we have is as up to date as possible. The number one complaint we get from trophy owners is that they aren't able to contact Official Measurers. After you renew, you will be asked to review your information in one year, then your appointment will last for two full years as before. If you can get into the habit of verifying your contact info whenever you log in, we can ensure what information we make available to the public is the most up to date.

When you log in select your official measurer account at the top navigation. You may notice that we only list your phone number and email address. Please use this opportunity to provide your most current contact information. You will need to select the 'Has Changed' button under 'My Contact Information' to make these updates. There are two separate address fields you will need to update. The Public Official Measurer Profile is the information you want available to the public when they are searching for an Official Measurer on the Boone and Crockett Club website. The new system allows you to use the city more recognizable to the public or where you are available to measurer, if that differs from your physical mailing address. Only list the email and phone number on the public profile that you want trophy owners to use to contact you. The second section is the Private B&C Account Information, this is for internal use.

To those of our OMs who do not have an email address, traditional paper renewals will still be mailed. We are also starting to implement online trophy submission. While we will always accept hard copy submission of any renewal or entry from our Official Measurers, those utilizing the online submission process should start to see quicker turnaround times and ultimately more efficient records program administration. If you are having difficulties logging in, renewing online, or have any questions regarding our new website, don't hesitate to call me in the office at (406)542-1888 ext. 204.

In my next column, I intend to go over in detail the new online trophy submission process. Stay safe out there, and keep up the great work you do for conservation. ■

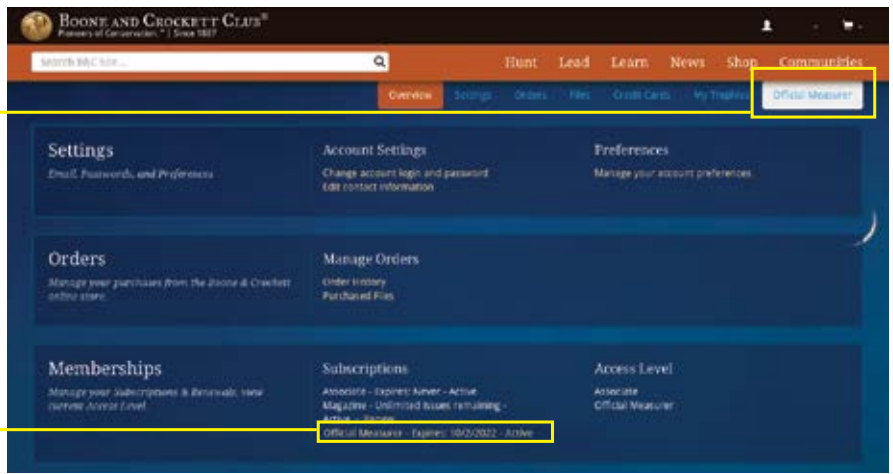

Log in to access your account. If you do not remember your password you can reset it. Once you have logged in, select 'My Account' from the drop down menu.

NOTE: Please continue to follow all CDC guidelines regarding travel, social distancing and maintaining personal safety during this time.

RENEW AS AN OFFICIAL MEASURER
After you log in click on the Official Measurer tab.

Once you have renewed you can see your expiration date under your Memberships and Subscriptions

Your Public Official Measurer Profile is the information that will be available to the public.

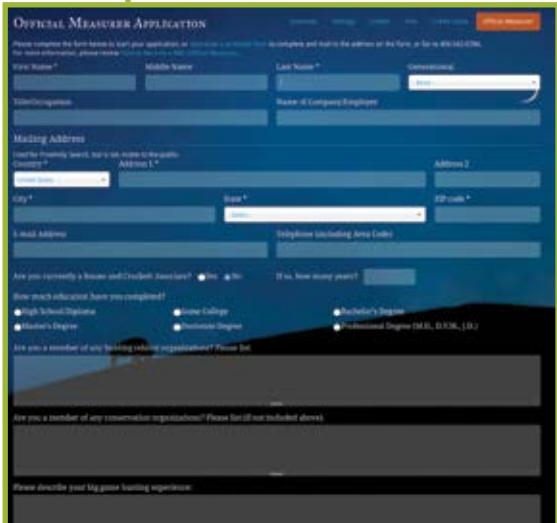

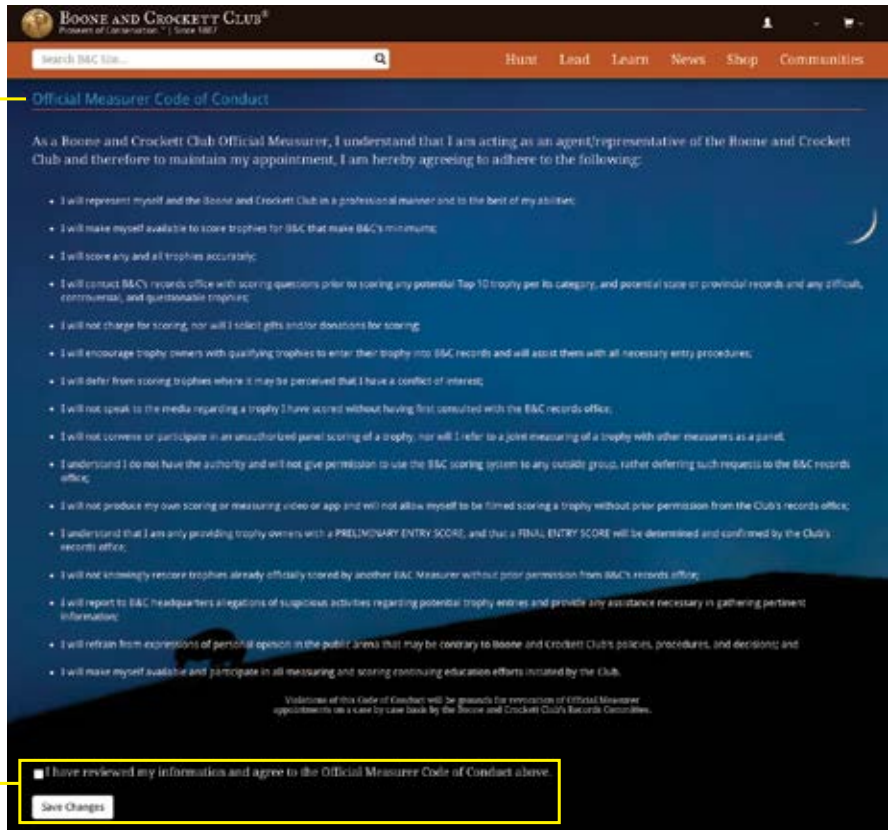

Your Private B&C Account Information is the contact information the Club uses internally and will not be made public.

Note: You must select 'Has changed' button to make your edits.

Please review the Official Measurer Code of Conduct. Once you have reviewed and agreed with the Code of Conduct click 'Save Changes' and your renewal is complete.

WANT TO BECOME AN OFFICIAL MEASURER?

Log into your account and select the Official Measurer tab in your account navigation. Once you submit the Official Measurer application it will be reviewed by the records department.
